

College Visits

Throughout the school year, college and military representatives will visit students at Westwood High School. In order to visit with the representatives, students MUST pre-register with the Counseling Office prior to the visit. In addition, students must be passing their classes in order to meet with the representatives during the scheduled visit.

Parents are more than welcome to attend these sessions.

Coming up...