The Wyoming Department of Workforce Services, Division of Vocational Rehabilitation works in partnership with consumers and other stakeholders to provide services and advocacy resulting in employment, independent living and equality for individuals with disabilities.

Application Process

You may either pick up an application from the Guidance Office or from your local DVR office. Complete the application, submit it to the vocational counselor, and set up an appointment with Kristen Kirven MHA at the above phone number or email her at kkirve@state.wy.us. She is in Gillette on Thursdays.

Eligibility

After you have submitted your application, your vocational counselor (not school counselor) will determine eligibility for DFR services within 60 days. Please note that if you are a SSI recipient or SSDI beneficiary and want to work, you are presumed to be eligible for DVR services (unless your disability is so severe that services would not be helpful to you). If you do not receive SSI or SSDI, your eligibility is based on the following factors.

1. You have a physical or mental impairment;
2. Your impairment constitutes or results in an impediment to employment for you and;
3. You require vocational rehabilitation services to prepare you to secure, retain, or regain employment.
